Responsibility of Mistress Toward Her Maids.

Rev. Alden W. Quimby, in the June Forum, gives some very judicious advice to the mistresses of the home. He says:

It would be very unjust not to remark that there are many homes of wealth in which the helpers receive fine consideration, and in which much of the discomfort of "the gulf" is smoothed away by kindness and thoughtfulness. But those homes are few indeed in which some evidence of the stigma of servitude, at least its badge, is not recognized. Remove that, and the new era will have dawned.

The maid is the ward of the mistress and she must share in the homliness of the home, which is the focus of human society. The mistress cannot conscientiously deal with her as if she were purchasing a pound of tea. She cannot evade a certain rsponsibility growing out of her personality. She should clearly know the locality of the home of her maid, and something about the family and its circumstances and she should take care to inquire courteously from time to time after its health and happiness. It is not necessary for the mistress to confide private matters to her maid, or, per contra, for the maid to her mistress. Strangely enough, mistresses have often made their girls confidents in respects most unwise, and have heaped trouble as the result. Such familiarity is fatal, and must be deplored. Yet a good measure of frank and intimate correspondence may be indulged where a sufficiently long acquaintance and mutual esteem suggest and prompt it. Still there are matters which should never be ventured upon.

There is really no little responsibility resting upon the employer. It is hers to train her maid in the best aspects of housekeeping, to advise her in the matter of dress and personal appearance, to watch over her friendship, to train her mind, and to help in the development of her moral character. Justice is to be shown in the arrangement of hours of service, and provision made for the proper amount of recreation. Church privileges are to be borne in mind, also occasional midweek social privileges. If the housekeeper feels appalled at such a vista of duty. It can only be said that this is but an illustration of the obligations that accompany possession. The little whitewashed log cottage on the hillside has few expenses associated with it, but our responsibilities grow in proportion to our acquisitions. It is a day of advance in many respects. There are cooking and sewing schools and various other institutions for the promotion of household interests. Let the best of these privileges be utilized to the utmost and their products be brought as tributes to the home.

There is one word of almost magical influence that needs to be whispered in connection with the theme of housekeeping. It is system! Without it, success is doubtful; with it, failure cannot ensue. There must be system for all work, system for hours, system in promptness, system for occupation, and system for recreation, system in the rigorous observance of hours of rest and sleep, and system in the hours of rising. When possible, a girl should have in her own right a bright, well-ventilated room, capable of being made comfortable in the winter. Attention to this will react in advantage to the employer. Whatever taste the latter expends upon her maid's apartment is an investment sure to result usuriously to herself.

Huntsville, Ala., June 4.—Jim Whitecotton, wanted in San Jacinto county, Texas, for murder, was lodged in jail here today. Whitecotton belongs to a noted family in Jackson county, and after killing William Lyons at Oakhurst, Tex., came back to Jackson county more than a year ago. A reward of $300 was offered for his capture and Will Atkins, a Cumberland Presbyterian minister, formerly of this city, resolved to earn the prize money. He and a companion located Whitecotton in the mountains and attacked his last night. A pitched battle ensued, but the fugitive was knocked down and taken without bloodshed.

A PRETTY MARRIAGE.

Mr. J. C. McDiarmid and bride, of Fayetteville, spent last night in the city, and left this afternoon on a trip to the Northern cities. Mr. McDiarmid is a prominent lumber dealer of Fayetteville, being a member of the McDiarmid Lumber Company. His bride is the eldest daughter of Rev. C. W. Robinson, a Presbyterian minister of Wilkesboro. The following account of their marriage is taken from the Wilkesboro correspondence of the Charlotte Observer:

One of the most beautiful and impressive ceremonies ever witnessed in this place was performed in the Presbyterian church this morning at 11 o'clock, when Mr. J. C. McDiarmid, of Fayettevile, led Miss Katherine, the eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson, to the altar. The short but impressive ceremony was performed by the bride's father. The bride was dressed in white organdie over white silk, the veil was caught with a pearl and diamond brooch, a gift of the groom, and she carried bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Nan Fairly, of Fayetteville, wore white organdie and carried American beauty roses. Dr. A. S. Rose, of Fayetteville, was best man, while Mesrs. J. T. Finley and T. J. Robertson were the ushers. The church was handsomely decorated, the blinds closed and brilliantly lighted. Mrs. A. A. Finley presided at the piano. The bride and groom boarded the train this afternoon for Washington City and other points. They will be at home in Fayettevile after the 12th inst.

He's a Hot Shot.

Wilmington Messenger.

Captain Edgar L. Hinton, of the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad Company, has closed an engagement with Prof. M. Robert Holland, the high diver. He will give exhibitions at Wrightsville Beach July the 4th, 5th and 6th. He leaps into the water from a steal tower 135 feet high. On th 4th he will make a high jump from his tower and that night he will make what he calls his fire leap. He sets himself on fire, leaps from his tower and shoots like a metor through space.

On Prof. Holland's letter head is "When you book me you book a hot shot." That seems quite evident. It was the professor's partner who was killed recently in making a jump into a tank at New York.

Bucket Shops Driven Out.

New York June 4.—According to Charles H. Treat, colector of internal revenue for the Second district, more than 100 bucket shops have been driven out of business by the restrictions imposed on them in the amended war revenue bill passed last March, while those that still exist in the city have so changed their methods of business as to observe the letter if not the spirit of the law.

Mr. Treat's office made a list of all the bucket shop proprietors in the city and submitted it to the officers of the several exchanges for verification. In this way the list was made as free from error as possible.

Sanctificationist Still Holding Forth—Several Teachers Resign—Party Go to Buffalo—A Two-tailed Pig—Personal Notes.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

High, Point, June 5.—Major Watlington, the now famous native of Caswell county, this State, has come into possession of a full history of his family dating back to 1676. The family moved here from England and now since all the Watlington's in that country are dead the town and county of Watlington falls to the members of the family of that name in other parts of the globe. He was here yesterday and seems unusually lated over the information.

Mr. A. B. Harvey, of this place, will leave for Buffalo next week. He is the representative from this state to the National Council Jr. O. U. A. M. which meets there June 15th.

Rev. J. W. Jones, at one time pastor M. E. church here, spent last night in town on business.

The sanctification meeting continues to draw large crowds nightly only to hear the church of their choice given a "raking" for the preachers seem to think that their faith is the faith.

The school board met last night and raised $500 towards an auditorium for the graded school and appointed the superintendent, Prof. George H. Crowell, to solicit further subscriptions. Those giving $100 each are J. Elwood Cox, W. H. Ragan, W. P. Pickett and E. A. Snow and Dr. Stanton and O. N. Richardson $50 each. Others will give like amounts. The work is to commence at once. This is a step in the right direction for this place.

Misses Colline, Worth and Patterson have resigned as teachers in the graded school. Misses Ogburn, of Summerfield; Garvin, of Newton and Hackney, of Guilford College, have been appointed in their stead.

Mr. Chas. Johnson has accepted a position in Morganton and has moved his family there.

Governor Aycock has appointed Mr. J. Elwood Cox, of this place, delegate state-at-large to the Southern Industrial Association which meets in Philadelphia June 11-14. Mr. Cox is a man of ability and the choice is a good one.

Prof. Chas. Lee Raper of this place, has been elected associate professor of economics and history, at the University of North Carolina and Columbia University and is now assistant professor in the latter university. Prof. Raper has accepted the professorship.

Editor J. J. Farriss, and sister-in-law, Miss Maude Stamey, and Mr. and Mrs. Varner, of Lexington, together with a party of about 20 left last night en route to Buffalo. They will go from Norfolk to New York by steamer and likewise up the Hudson river to Albany where they will take the railroad. They will be gone about two weeks. Most of the gentlemen in the party are going to attend the National Editorial Association. New York, Niagara Falls, Washington and other places of interest will be included in the trip.

Mr. J. P. Redding will again visit Hot Springs, Ark., this week to recuperate his health.

Mrs. Dr. McAnally has returned from a visit to relatives in Madison.

Mrs. M. K. Collum, of Greensboro, is visiting the family of her brother, Mr. J. W. Harris.

Mrs. Elliott, of Alabama, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Burns.

Mr. J. M. Sechrest is in Stanly county this week on business.

Mr. Lee Charles, of Westminster, has a two-tailed pig.

Mrs. Emsley Armfield and Mrs. Wm. Lee and children, of Monroe, are visiting the family of Mr. W. J. Armfield, at Saponah Side.

Workmen are now engaged in building a depot here to be used exculsively for shipments to be made to Mr. Chase, the extensive furniture buyer.

H. A. Brigham, of Carthage, is in town.

JEALOUS LOVERS SHOOT.

Each Tried to Outstay the Other—Failing, Each Drew His Gun

Jeffersonville, Ind., June 6.—In trying to out stay each other, at the home of Miss Rose Moore, with whom both were in love, the feeling between Thomas True and Floyd Nelson grew high. At midnight each drew a revolver. Four shots were exchanged. One shot entered Nelson's mouth. The wound is not fatal. Both were arrested and the girl had swooned when the police arrived.

Law and Belief.

New York Tribune.

Adherents of the faith cure doctrine will learn something to their advantage if they will read, with an open mind, the remarks of Judge Lent, of Westchester, in passing sentence upon one of their belief who failed to call a doctor to treat his two-year-old daughter, ill with pneumonia. 'The trouble with you," said Judge Lent,"is that you take the ground that you are all right, despite the laws of the state." Here lies the whole trouble so far as the public is concerned. Nobody objects to the beliefs of the faith curists. Christian Scientists and their kind. They have a perfect right to believe what they like. It is a free country. One may believe the moon is made of green cheese, if he wishes. He may call something science, though there may be nothing scientific about it, and Christian, though it may have little or nothing to do with the life or words of the Great Teacher. That is his privilege, because it has long been adjudged against public policy to interfere in such matters.

But freedom of thought and opinion does not include license to violate the laws of the state. This is a point which some persons seem to pass over, to their hurt. The law requires that a man shall take care of those dependent upon him, and if he neglects them, the law will punish him. Views may differ as to what constitutes neglect, but the views taken by the law will prevail until the law is changed, and all men must abide by it,whatever their belief may be. The man whom Judge Lent sentenced said that he would not pay his fine, but would "stand by his faith," by which he meant that he would go to jail. But, of course, nobody asked him to recant his faith. Like other citizens, many of them of widely varied forms of belief or non-belief, he was simply asked to obey the law of the state. It was not in the least necessary for him to approve it, but obey he must, and reasonable beings will not account him a martyr to his faith for going to jail. He will simply be acting a foolish part, and faling a victim to his own folly.

Battle in a Cab With Burglars.

Toronto, Ont., June 4.—Frank Rutledge, Fred Rice, and Frank Jones, three alleged bank robbers, extradited from Chicago on trial here for robbery of a private bank at Aurora, were being transferred from the court room to the jail tonight in a cab in which were Police Officers Boyd and Stewart. The three prisoners were handcuffed together. When the rig was approaching the jail, an unknown person threw three loaded revolvers into the cab. Jones grabbed one of the pistols and shot Officer Boyd, who died in a few minutes. Officer Stewart open fire on Jones, shotting him in the arm and groin.

The prisoners then leaped from the cab, and boarding a passing street car, ordered the motorman to proceed faster. The latter removed the arm of the motor and struck Rutledge over head, while the conductor threw off the trolley pole from the wire, bringing the car to a standstill. The men were the noverpowered. Jones is in the hospital and will lose his arm if he recovers.

TWICE DESERTED WIFE.

Atlanta Constitution.

A sensational suit for divorce was filed i nthe superior court yesterday against John H. Neusom, a locomotive engineer, by Attorney James T. Wright representing Mrs. Ruby Neusom. The petition states that Neusom is now a non-resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Neusom were married March 1, 1892, and lived together until August, 1900. The petition alleges that in August 1897, Neusom carried his wife to Hawkinsville and that a short time afterwards he ran away with a woman named Fay Klein. After remaining away a number of days, it is alleged that he returned and that his people, with whom Mrs. Neusom was staying, persuaded her by fair and flattering promises to continue to live with him.

So she, the petition states, with all the tenderness of a loving and affectionate wife, freely forgave him and offered to go with him any where his business interests would be best subserved and he would like to make his home.

It is asserted that Neusom deserted his wife in Hawkinsville in the fall of 1897 the second time and that she was forced to return to Atlanta and seek employment as a saleslady in a large dry gods store to make a living for herself, he refusing to support her. Mrs. Neusom alleges that since the occurrence in Hawkinsville her husband has not paid her board bill for more than three months; has given her less than $5 in money, and has bought her no clothing of any description, although he was earning a good salary as engineer on the Southern railway.

It is further alleged that after Mrs. Neusom went to work in the store her husband would go to her and borrow money, failing to pay it back. The petition asserts that he secured the money by threatening to make trouble for his wife and cause her to lose her job, by saying that he would tell some tale on her. It is alleged that she was forced to let him have the money to protect herself and keep her position. It is claimed the last time he made her let him have money he secured $12.50 which he has not paid back.

This annoying and harassing conduct was kept up, the petition states, unti about August 1900, when he went to the house of his wife and began to quarrel and fuss with her. It is claimed that he finally struck her on the shoulder, then grabbed her by the shoulders with great force and violence, wrenching and bruising the shoulder and tearing her shirt waist nearly off.

It is alleged that he then thrust his hands in his pockets and threatened to cut her throat. Mrs. Neusom states that she screamed and begged for her life. Since that time, it is stated, she has not seen or spoke to him. She alleges that her life was made so miserable that she had no peace by day or rest by night. She asks for a total divorce.

In the Play.

Detroit Journal.

For example:

Rheumatism

Rheumatism is due to an excess of acid in the blood. When this escapes through the pores of the skin, as it often does, it produces some form of skin eruption—some itching disease like Eczema or Tetter—but when these little tubes or sweat glands are suddenly closed by exposure to cold and sudden chilling of the body, then the poisons thrown off by the blood, finding no outlet, settle in membranes, muscles, tissues and nerves. These parts become greatly inflamed, feverish and hot; dagger-like, maddening pains follow in quick succession, the muscles become extremely tender, the nerves break down and the sufferer is soon reduced to a state of helplessness and misery. This acid poison penetrates the joints and seems to dry out the natural oils, and the legs, arms and fingers become so stiff and sore that every movement is attended with excruciating pains.

Liniments, plasters, electricity and baths, while their use may give temporary ease, cannot be called cures, for the disease returns with every change of the weather.

"Three years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe, which left me almost a physical wreck. To add to my wretched condition, a severe form of Rheumatism developed. I tried all the physicians in our city, but none of them could do me any permanent good. I used all the rheumatic cures I could hear of, but received no benefit. After beginning S. S. S. I was relieved of the pains and have gained in flesh and strength and my general health is better than for years. I consider S. S. S. the grandest blood medicine in the world, and heartily recommend it to any one seeking relief from the tortures of Rheumatism.
B. F. GREGORY, Union, S. C."

S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by working a complete change in the blood; the acids are neutralized, the circulation purified and the rich, healthy blood that is carried to the irritated, aching muscles and joints, soothes and heals them. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism even when inherited or brought on by the excessive use of mercury. Opium, in some form, is the basis of nearly all so-called Rheumatic Cures, which deaden the pain but do not touch the disease and lead to ruinous habits. Alkalies and the potash and mineral remedies so often prescribed, affect the tender lining of the stomach and weaken the digestion, thus adding another burden to the already weak and impoverished blood. S. S. S. contains no mineral or dangerous drug of any kind, but is a simple, vegetable remedy and the most perfect blood purifier known. Send for our book on Rheumatism and write our physicians if you wish any information or advice. We would be glad to mail you a book free; we charge nothing whatever for medical advice.

$1,000 Offered for an Honest Man.

Chicago Dispatch.

Mrs. Henry B. Irving, a book publisher, has started out to emulate Diogenes in her search for an honest man. She believes it an impossibility to live a strictly honest business or professional life under the present conditions of society.

To prove this point Mrs. Irving offers to deposit $1,000 in a Chicago bank which will be paid to the first business or professional man who can prove conclusively that he has carried on his work for a month without lying. She is anxious to prove the point because of a book she has in view.

Mrs. Irving will name two men, the man who thinks he holds the title to the $1,000 may name two, and a fifth will be named by these four. They will act as judges upon the business record of the claimant, trusting him to tell his own story and give all the evidence. Mrs. Irving thinks that she will not lose the $1,000. If she does she is quite certain the history of the man who gets it will have reduced him to such poverty that he will need it.

Women are Like Flowers.

Healthy and strong they blossom and bloom. Sickly, they wither and die. Every woman ought to look well and feel well. It's her right and duty, but she might as well try to put out a fire with oil as to be healthy and attractive with disease corroding the organs that make her a woman. Upon their health depends her health. If there is inflammation or weakening drains or suffering at the monthly period, attend to it at once. Don't delay. You're one step nearer the grave every day you put it off. Women can stand a great deal, but they cannot live forever with disease dragging at the most delicate and vital organs in their body. You may have been deceived in so-called cures. We don't see how you could help it—there is so much worthless stuff on the market. But you won't be disappointed in Bradfield's Female Regulator. We believe it is the one medicine on earth for womanly ills. There is as much difference between it and other so-called remedies as there is between right and wrong. Bradfield's Female Regulator soothes the pain, stops the drains, promotes regularity, strengthens, purifies and cleanses. It does all this quickly and easily and naturally. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. Bradfield's Regulator lies at hand. $1 per bottle at drug store.

in life is more often due to exhausted nerve force than to lack of capital.

Strong nerves are the capital that helps men conquer conditions.

When people lose their capital they set to work to regain it.

When we lose our nerve force we ought to seek a means of getting it back. There is a way, certain and scientific.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

THURSDAY, JUNE 6.

High Point and vicinity is always to the fore, when the question of curiosities or freaks is on hand. This time it is a two-tailed pig. His hogship is the property of a Mr. Lee Charles, of Westminster.

Something must be the matter with Cardeza's pond. Some time ago, a crowd of sure enough fishermen, the "real thing," went there, and returned with no fish, and yesterday a party of picnickers spent the day there, with a similar result. The party yesterday can be excused, because girls were along, and it is a well known fact that girls prefer to fish on dry land, but the other party carried no girls along.

The worm has turned again. This time it is on the baggage smasher. A New Yorker, who, it is presumed, has had his trunk smashed before, got a brass bound trunk and loaded it with shooting paraphernalia, including severals hundred shells. When the smasher got hold of it, what he did for it was a plenty, and the shells did likewise for the smasher. The smasher is now in the hospital.

"DRESS REFORM."

The Savannah Press in speaking of the recent action of the board of trustees of the Wesleyan Female College, in regard to their students wearing low neck dresses, says:

The announcement has been made that the board of trustees of Wesleyan Female College has adopted a resolution condemning the wearing of low-neck dresses during the coming commencement. This is said to be a result in part of Rev. Sam Jones' crusade upon the decollete costume. The evangelist is quoted as saying that "between the ball and the bicylce he is very uneasy about woman's wear."

We do not know how far the board of Wesleyan College has gone in this matter, but it looks like a very small point for grown up men to be seriously legislating about. Some of the trustees favor leaving this question with the parents, and that's where it should be left. People who prat about costumes should remember that the pictures of our grandmothers, which are supposed to come down to us from a n older and better time, are far more decollete than their granddaughters would begin to wear. Miniatures of Dolly Madison and Madam Recamier would be considered scandalous in polite society now, and yet everybody knows that they were good people, pure and high minded,and were the best types of their country-women. Good taste, good breeding will regulate the cut of a girl's graduating dress. The pulpit and the bar are not the proper censors. Georgia people are sensible and nobody is going to send a girl on the stage in a ball costume. It would be out of place, and unbecoming. So far as bicycle skirts are concerned the greatest blessing to woman today are the bicylce or golf skirts and the tennis costume which have emancipated woman—especially working women—from the long trailing and unsanitary gowns which made her clothing a drag net and her frock a repository of all sorts of germs. There is no need for the pulpit or the public educators the prate or to legislate about women's dress.

Fraud in Chicago's Election.

Chicago, June1.—Frauds in the Presidential election last fall have been uncovered through the recount of the ballots of certain percincts of the Seventh ward. It is believed that a systematic effort was made in these precincts to defeat the will of the voters by so odefacing the ballots as to cause them to be thrown out by the judges. At least twenty-five defaced ballots were found today in some of the precincts of the old Seventh. Inspection of ballots defaced has led Attorney Underwood, who represents the contesting Republican County Commissioners in the recount, to belive that the work was done by expert ballot-box stuffers. The method used was not unlike that in the frauds perpetrated by the old-time use of the "little joker."

ADVERTISING COMMENT.

By THE HUSTLER.

While the sun shines make tracks for Ward's and get some of the bargains offered this week at the Shiny Shoe Sale, $5 patent leathers and Enamel shoes for $2.50. Read their ad.

One of the busiest scenes in the city yesterday was at the music house of A. D. Jones & Co., on South Elm street, the immediate cause of which was the receiving and unloading of a car or more of the well known Kimball Pianos and organs. There are some twenty-five or thirty of these instruments in all, and at times during the day travel on the sidewalk was a little difficult owing to the constant unloading from two or three drays which were kept busy. Such a shipment is something unusual in Greensboro and would naturally create considerable interest, but more interesting still, are the beautiful instruments which are everywhere acknowledged as one of the leading standard makes.

Messrs. A. D. Jones & Co., are to be congratulated upon their enterprise in handling so many of these instruments, which are now being used in large numbers by many of the leading educational institutions throughout the country, and are receiving the strongest testimonials as to their unequalled merit.

The Ward Shoe Company had a busy day of it yesterday, which goes to prove the value of advertising in The Telegram when you have a good thing to offer. The Shiney Shoe Sale is a success and means something to all whow ill investigate the sterling values offered.

Washington Post.

Annapolis, Md., June 4.—Calvin J. Cressy, of California, a member of the fourth class, is under arrest on the charge of "running" a cadet who had just entered, known in the academy as vernacular as a "function." An order has arrived from the Secretary of the Navy to hold a courtmartial in his case, and the matter will be taken up immediately, after this week. Cadet Cressy will at any rate lose this summer's cruise as a part of his punishment, but the opinion prevails that he will be dealt with severely.

The particular offense occurred last Saturday night. Cressy had obtained permission to visit the quarters of the new cadet, and it is claimed that he compelled one of them to stand on his head. It apepars that he was caught in the act by the officer on duty at the time. The report has it that Cressy went there and asked the new comr what he could do to amuse him. The upper classmen have their juniors under such control that this was sufficient to make him perform as told. It was just at this time that the officer arrived.

The naval authorities have been stamping out these practices with such rigor that it is thought an example will be made.

Explosion in a Trunk.

New York, June 4.—Andrew Keavey, a baggagemaster, and John Alistrum, his assistant, were badly injured and great excitement caused at the railroad terminal at Atlantic Highlands today by the explosion of a big trunk containing clothing and a large number of cartridges. The trunk was being transferred from a steamer to a railroad train at the time. Keavey was so badly injured that he was removed to the Long Branch Hospital. The trunk was almost completely demolished.

The trunk was identified as the property of C. F. Naething, a restaurant man, of Fulton street, New York. Mr. Naething and his family were on the boat bound for Galileo, N. J., where the family is to spend the summer. Mr. Naething intends shortly to go to Canada on a hunting trip.

Some time ago he was presented with a handsome brass-bound trunk. When he left on the present trip he decided to carry his shooting paraphernalia in his trunk. Accordingly, he placed his guns and several hundred cartridges in the trunk between his shooting clothes. The trunk had been gotten safely from the boat at the Higlands, and the baggaemen were placing it on the train when the explosion took place.

MARRIAGE AT WESTMINISTER.

The Groom a Well Known Presbyterian Divine—The Bride One of Greensboro's Most Charming Daughters—Miss Catherine Taylor, of Mt Airy, Maid of Honor—Bridal Couple go to Pan-American Exposition.

One of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in Greensboro was solemnized last night in the Westminster Presbyterian church, when Rev. Charles Edward Hodgin, pastor of the church, Miss Nettie Erma Murray were married.

The church had been beautifully decorated in honor of the ocasion by the young ladies of the congregation. The chandeliers, walls, altar, all were decorated with a profusion of vines, palms, and other potted plants.

Before the ceremony Mrs. C. W. Banner sang "As the Dawn," by Otto Cantor. Immediately upon the conclusion of the solo, to the peals of the wedding march by Mendelssohn, played by Mrs. Muse, organist of the church, with violins by Miss Minnie Lyon, Miss Elsie Weatherly, and Mr. Ney Forbis, the bridal party entered the church in the following order:

First came the ushers, Mr. Charles H. Muray, brother of the bride, and Mr. C. C. McLean, then Rev. Edmund Brown, of Winston, and Mr. Hodgin, of Winston, cousin of the groom. Following the ushers came Misses Mae Beall, and Annie Louise Wharton, two little flower girls, carrying baskets of beautiful flowers. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Catherine Taylor, of Mt. Airy, and following her came the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. R. W. Murray, who gave her away.

As the bride advanced, the groom, accompanied by his best man, Rev. E. E. Gillespie, entered through a door behind the pulpit, and met his bride before the altar, under a beautiful bell of flowers, where the twain were made one. The solemn words of the marriage ceremony were spoken by Rev. R. E. Caldwell, D. D., of Winston, a cousin, and Rev. W. A. Murray, of Sparta, a brother of the bride. The ring ceremony was used, and it was very impressive. While the marriage vows were being plighted Mr. Ney Forbis and Miss Minnie Lyon played softly a violin duet, "I would That My Love."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the flower girls going first, and followed by the bride and groom, the maid of honor and best man, the ushers, the ministers being last.

The newly wedded couple were driven to the home of the bride, and spent an hour there, informally receiving friends. They left on the Florida Special on a bridal tour to the Pan-American Exposition, Toronto, New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

The bride wore white organdy and a beautiful viel, which was caught back by a diamond sun burst, a gift from the groom, and carried bride's roses. The maid of honor wore pink crepe de chene, and carried American beauty roses.

The church was filled to its utmost limits with friends and well wishers of the happy couple, outside the church, another churchful waited to see them come out, and many went away as they were unable to get seats.

The couple were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents. The gift of the church was a very handsome silver service consisting of sixty pieces.

Mr. Hodgin is a prominent Presbyterian divine, and for several years has been pastor of Westminster church. His bride is one of Greensboro's most charming daughters, and has a host of friends in the city. They will be absent about two weeks.

THE TRIAL IN PROGRESS.

Gold Brick Case Came Up This Morning, but Was Postponed Until This Afternoon—Many Ladies Present.

The trial of the gold brickers came up this morning, but was continued until after dinner, in order to give time for the finding of a letter which was lost. This afternoon at 4 o'clock the case is just beginning. The court house is well filled, many men standing up in the aisles. The legal fraternity is well represented, there being scarcely a lawyer in the city not present. Many ladies also braved the rain and made their appearance. The ladies have seats within the bar.

MARRIAGE IN WINSTON.

Mr. Charles Siewers and Miss Clara Vance are Made One.

Mr. Charles Siewers and bride, of Winston-Salem, spent last night in the city, and left this afternoon on their bridal trip to the Northern cities. An account of their marriage is taken from yesterday afternoon's Twin City Sentinel:

This afternoon, at two o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vance, the eldest daughter, Miss Clara, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles S. Siewers.

According to the beautiful Moravian ritual the solemn questions were asked and answered, the ring was given, and the benediction was pronounced, and then the happy pair took their place beneath the rose, and received the hearty congratulations of the company.

The numerous and handsome presents were arranged in the sitting room which was decorated in yellow. A little latter an elaborate and delightful luncheon was served, and Mr. and Mrs. Siewers left on the evening train for Buffalo, Niagara, Boston and other points of interest North.

THE STRIKERS TALK.

Information From Spencer and Manchester States That Strikers are Firm.

The striking machinists in this city report having received communications from the strikers at Spencer, N. C., and Manchester, Va., and that not a one of them had returned to work. They are confident that their demand will be acceded to by the railway company in a short time, as machinists cannot be secured to fill the places of the strikers. They also say that if the railway company continues to operate the engines without their being worked upon by machinists, it will be a question of only a few weeks until the engines will be unable to run. In support of this statement the fact is brought forward that the train scheduled to leave here about midnight, for Raleigh, was on Tuesday night delayed for some time on account of want of repairs.

The railway officials on their part seem to be satisfied that they will be able to fill the places made vacant by the strikers with very little embarrassment. So far, however, they seem to have failed.

PICNICKERS.

Party Visited Cardeza's Yesterday, but Caught No Fish.

A crowd of young folks from the West End went picnicking yesterday to Cardeza's mill pond, about thirteen miles from the city. They returned last night at nine o'clock, tired, and happy, but bringing no fish. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. R. F. Bishop. Those who went are, Misses Dot Thacker, Maud Stockard, Ethel Ridge, Jennie Tatum, Allie Vickory, May Stewart, Annie Reid, Orie Lee, Bonnie Bishop, Margaret Merrimon, Messrs. Frederick Crawford, Frank Eldridge, Chauncey Eldridge, Irving Eldridge, Wistar Stockard, Wade Stockard, Archie Dalton, Ed Land, Charlie Wheeler, Ulton Staples, Meredith Turner, and Clarence Smith.

REV. T. E. WAGG MARRIES.

Rev. T. E. Wagg, pastor of the Methodist church in Morganton, was married yesterday to Miss Kate Moore, at Murphy. The bride is a sister of Superior Court Judge Moore.

Mr. Wagg was for two years pastor of Centenary Methodist church, this city, and was stationed last year at Morganton. Mr. and Mrs. Wagg are expected to return to Morganton the latter part of the week.

Normal Directors Meet.

The postponed meeting of the directors of the State Normal and Industrial College will be held tonight. Two of the directors, Mr. C. H. Mebane, of Catawba College, and Superintendent of Public Instruction T. F. Toon, of Raleigh, arrived last night. Mr. H. G. Chatham, of Elkin, arrived today. Several of the directors could not be present at commencement on account of the floods at that time and so the director's meeting was postponed until tonight.

Won the Medal.

PROF. RAPER HONORED.

Elected Assistant Professor of Economies and History at the University.

Prof. Charles Lee Raper, assistant professor of History in Columbia University, New York, has been elected Associate Professor of Economics and History in the University of North Carolina. He has accepted the professorship.

Mr. Raper was for several years a member of the faculty of Greensboro Female College, and has many friends in this city, who rejoice that his merit has been recognized by his native State. He is a graduate of Trinity College. In speaking of his election, the Raleigh News and Observer says:

Prof. Charles Lee Raper, who has been elected Associate Professor of History and Economies in the University of North Carolina is fittted by education, experience, capacity and tact for the important position to which he has been called. He was born near High Point and graduated at Trinity College when it was located in Randolph county. He manifested ability of a high order when a member of the faculty of Greensboro Female College and has grown in his position as instructor in Columbia Univeristy. He loves North Carolina and all its institution with a filial love and returns to labor in his native State with a son's enthusiasm and a son's devotion. He is a broad guaged scholar, an enthusiastic investigator, a companionable and agreeable gentleman of high character in Christian life.

JUDGE HOBSON ALIVE.

Telegraphs the Fact to Major Morehead This Afternoon.

Some days ago the press dispatches stated that Judge J. M. Hobson, of Greensboro, Ala., father of Lieut. Hobson, was dead, and Maj. J. M. Morehead at once wrote a letter of condolence to the widow, Judge Hobson being a first cousin and also a class mate of Maj Morehead's. This afternoon a telegram was received by Maj. Morehead from Judge Hobson stating that he is very much alive. The Telegram is given below.

CUBAN POLITICIANS.

Chicago Chronicle.

The Cuban politicians who have been masquerading for six months as statesmen framing a constitution find that their action is not acceptable at Washington.

The reservations, explanations, and equivocations accompanying their acceptance of the Platt amendments are peremptorily rejected. They are told to accept the Platt provisions without modification—that a partial acceptance is no acceptance that a plain "yes" or "no" is the only reply that will be received. In short the Cubans are to be brought up with a round turn, which is the only way to deal with them.

The methods of the Cuban politicians form an interesting character study. They inherit the original Spanish disposition to delay important action for further deliberation, to wait for what may happen in the universal chapter of acidents, to do nothing today which can be postponed until tomorrow. "Manana," tomorrow, is the everlasting Spanish plea when action is demanded. This was manifested throughout all the negotiations with Spain previous to the war.

The Cubans have the Spanish disposition exagerated by the enervating influnce of a tropical climate. Indolence, not industry, is the condition under which they live. In business, in the daily accounts of life, in important public transactions, in dealing even with the events of peace or war, the Cuban impulse is to postpone everything until a more convenient time. Where the native Spaniard would say "tomorrow" in asking delay the Cuban would say "next week."

This racial disposition has caused the delay of the Cuban convention in taking decisive action. Then Cuban craft interposed to find some sinuous way, cuunning and indirection, to meet the demands of the United States incompletely, leaving a way to back out through subterfuge or a misunderstanding purposely framed. That is why the United States and the Cuban politicians are yet unagreed.

Probably th Cuban diplomats will find out soon that their way is not the American way, and that a straightout bargain must be arranged by straighout methods.

Lonely Life Made Him Crazy.

Vancouver, B. C., June 3.—The Hon. Francis J. Lascellas, son of the fourth Ear of Harewood and a half brother of the present Earl and a cousin of Sir Frank Lascelles, Ambassador to Germany, is the central figure in a tragedy which cast a gloom over the mining town of Golden, B. C., today. Mr. Lascelles has been committed to an asylum as a raving maniac.

Lascelles has been for several years ranching on Thunder Hill. He was living with two men, John Lambert and Frederick Kimpton, both Canadian farmers. After dinner last night Lascelles went to his room alone and seizing his rifle shouted to his companions: "I will count five and then shoot the first man I see." Both his companions rushed from the house while they heard the loud counting of the mandman. The last number was drowned in the report of Lascelles's rifle and his servant fell dead not three feet from them. The two men seized their horses and galloped into town. That night a posse of police caught Lascelles unawares and lodged him in the asylum.

The lonely life in the mountains had preyed upon Lascelles' mind. He had money and spent it lavishly on the camp and in public enterprises.

If you make a man mad enough, he will always tell the truth, if you make a woman truthful enough, she will always get mad.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED,

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular size bottles 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver and you may know with a torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often his head aches and some times dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price 25 cents. Samples free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Call at C. E. Holton's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are an elegant physic. They also improve the appetite, strengthen the digestion and regulate the liver and bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

Dr. W. G. Browne, the well known practical and scientific optician, who on professional visits here during the past 16 years, has given entire satisfaction to his numerous patrons, has fitted up an optical parlor in the Wright building opposite the court house, where he will be found during business hours, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. and at any time at Hotel Clegg to attend special calls.

Eyes carefully examined and fitted with up-to-date spectacles and eye glasses. All work guaranteed.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which, with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good.

A SPRAINED ANKLE QUICKLY CURED.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says George E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington Va.,"After using several well recommended medicines with out success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, cashier of the First National Bank of Winterest,Iowa, in recent letter gives some experiences with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on acount of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similiarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE,

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.
